Circular Head General Manager Moving On

Circular Head Mayor, Daryl Quilliam has today announced the resignation of Council's General Manager Scott Riley.

Mr Riley will be leaving the Council on 18 February 2022.

Mr Riley has been in the role of General Manager at Circular Head Council since January 2018. He joined Circular Head Council from the Isaac Regional Council in Central Queensland where he worked in a senior management role.

Circular Head Mayor, Daryl Quilliam said "Scott has extensive experience working in local government and has made a very significant contribution to Circular Head. Council are sad to see him go and we wish him all the best for his future endeavours and I personally offer him my sincere gratitude for his service over the last four years. He has provided fantastic guidance to the elected members and staff and has demonstrated a great ability to connect with the local community to help deliver Council's services and projects."

Council will be starting the recruitment process for a new General Manager.
