Circular Head Council Announce New General Manager

Circular Head Council is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Vanessa Adams to the role of General Manager for a four-year term.

Circular Head Mayor Daryl Quilliam said “The appointment follows a nationwide recruitment process, which attracted a selection of quality applicants. Vanessa brings with her a wide range of experience from senior leadership positions within Local Government across Australia and the UK.

Vanessa’s leadership in innovation and organisational transformation will help guide the organisation through a period of change and assist Council and the community to grasp the opportunities ahead,” said Mayor Quilliam.

Ms Adams is currently Director Corporate and Community Services at Byron Shire Council and will be moving to Tasmania to take up the position in late April, early May.
