6. Provision of Advice and Information

Council staff will ensure information and advice to the customer is accurate and current (at the time it is provided) and is provided within agreed timeframes.

Technical, complex or regulatory matters will generally be addressed by senior staff or appropriately qualified staff.

General information and basic enquiries will usually be responded to by the staff member at the point of contact.

Advice will generally be provided by senior or specialist staff with the appropriate knowledge, experience and/or professional accreditation in respect of the subject matter of the advice being offered/provided.

7. Abusive Customers

Should customers be abusive or use offensive language, in person, over the phone or by email, we will terminate the communication.

If Council officers feel threatened by a customer's offensive language or behaviour, the Police may be notified.

8. Cessation of contact

The General Manager may decide to limit or cease responses to a customer should they be abusive in their communication with us or if they do not accept that we have done all that we can to assist. A decision of this nature will be communicated in writing.

9. Customer Feedback

Feedback (compliments, complaints, and suggestions), assists Council in understanding the expectations of the community and this feedback enables council to continuously improve its processes and service standards.

COMPLAINTS MANAGEMENT PROCESS

What is a complaint?

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction with a decision (outside of a structured process), level or quality of service, or behaviour of an employee or agent, which can be investigated and acted upon. A structured process is where legislation (Act, Regulation, Rule or By-law) specifically makes provision for an appeal, internal or external review of a decision.

The Manager of each Department of the Council is responsible for handling complaints relevant to that Department. While most situations can usually be resolved at an early stage, there are times when they require detailed investigation. If a complaint is of a serious nature, it will be referred to the department Director or General Manager.

An acknowledgement of a complaint can be expected as soon as practically possible and within three (3) working days.

Time limits for complaints will vary according to the complexity, however the customer will be kept informed of the process. Timeframe of updates – bi-weekly.

- What happened
- To whom the customer has spoken (names, position in the Council and dates)
- Copies or references to letters or documents relevant to the complaint; and
- State what is the ideal outcome to the complaint

Internal Review

Experience has shown that most complaints will be satisfactorily resolved by the relevant Officer or Manager. However, a person who is not satisfied with the outcome may request a review of the complaint by the Council's General Manager. A request for a review of the complaint to the General Manager is to be in writing.

The General Manager will inform the customer of the findings on completion of an investigation.

What if the customer is not happy with the resolution of a complaint?

Council is confident that it can resolve most complaints received, however, it is understood that Council may not be able to satisfy every customer on every occasion.

Sometimes there are difficult and complex decisions involving many people and individual customers do not get the outcome they want.

If a complaint remains unresolved or a customer is dissatisfied with our process in dealing with a complaint, other avenues remain for the customer to explore which include:

- Available Administration Appeals Process
- The Judicial Review Act 2000; or

Contact external agencies which can review actions and decisions taken by the Council, these include:

The Ombudsman, who is an officer responsible to Parliament for investigating complaints made about administrative actions (or inactions) of Tasmanian Government Departments, most Statutory Authorities and Local Government.
