Home 2020 – With a Splash of Colour

The Circular Head Council is celebrating its annual Culture Heritage and Arts festival of local visual and performing arts from the Circular Head region.

In 2020 the CHArts committee has invited local artists to explore the theme of what home means to them in the context of 2020.

A pop-up gallery from Monday, September 14 until Saturday, September 26 will showcase various pieces from talented adult and youth artists from Circular Head.

A splash of pink to the region will be accompanied by musical artists featured in Sounds Around Town, That's Classic and the Pop-up piper.

“When you visit Circular Head for the CHArts festival, make sure you keep your eyes open for various artworks in retail shops, street art and in the pop-up gallery,” said Mayor Daryl Quilliam.

The CHArts committee has teamed up with The Naked Farmer. The mission of Naked Farmer is it takes guts to take your gear off...as it takes guts to talk about mental health. In a rural community Circular Head Council supports promotion of mental health in the community.

“The support by local farmers, including Councillors has been outstanding, many locals have been impacted by mental health or know of someone dear to them. Some imagery is revealing, it brings much needed awareness and conversation around mental health,” said Mayor Quilliam.

CHArts events are adhering to COVID-19 restrictions. Council's contribution to this annual program is via support with marketing, promotion, venue and workforce.
